

Poetry Competition

We are pleased to announce the first major collaborative project run by the Dovestone Learning Partnership. We will be working together to enthuse and inspire youngsters to create an original poem to be judged by students from OSFC and published authors appearing at the Saddleworth Literary Festival.

- Deadline for submissions is the 28th February 2018
- There will be prizes for the winners alongside the opportunity to publish and share your work at the festival of the authors at the Literary Festival.
- For further details please see your child's class teacher.
